

NEW HORIZON ENGLISH MEDIUM SCHOOL, RAIGARH(C.G)

CLASS- V

WORKSHEET 2022-23

SUBJECT – ENGLISH

A. Answer these questions.

1. Why did swami think that a man and not a boy must have fought with the tiger?
2. Why did Swami spread his bed under the bench?
3. “Aiyo! Something has bitten me”. Who said this? Who was ‘something’? Where exactly was he bitten?
4. What did Father read out to Swaminathan one evening?

B. Read the words in the box. They are all from the story. Now describe the situation given below using the words in the box correctly.

hugged	trembling	crouched	crawled	congratulated
--------	-----------	----------	---------	---------------

1. You came face to face with a tiger on your way to school: As soon as I saw the tiger, I Started
2. You find your cat,tabby, sitting on all fours behind the sofa waiting to pounce on a mouse:I found
3. You have saved a child from being hit by a car . Everyone heaps praises on you: I was
4. You are in a war zone with a few others. Bombs are bursting everywhere. You are moving slowly along a bunker. We were
5. As soon as you reached home after a year abroad, your grandmother embraced you. Grandmother

C. Beside each sentence given below write:

D for Declarative

I for Interrogative

Im for Imperative

X for Exclamatory

1. What do you say to that?
2. I couldn't sleep wink last night.
3. What a wonderful view!
4. Go to the ticket counter and buy a ticket.

5. Is that all?
6. I don't want any noise in the classroom.
7. It rained cats and dogs last night.
8. What a fool he has been!

D. Put quotation marks at the appropriate places in these sentences.

1. Can you lift these boxes? Asked the man.
2. Oh, no! I've lost my bag, said Rekha.
3. That is an extraordinary picture! exclaimed the lady.
4. The station master said, the train will be late.
5. Do you live in this building? The man enquired.
6. Mother said to Neela, I cannot help you.

E. Write down word meaning.

1. Disputed –
2. Theory –
3. Challenge –
4. Tiptoed –
5. Cultivate –
6. Mortal weapon –
7. Agonized –
8. Notorious –